SUBJECT: INTRODUCTION TO THE ARTS & CULTURAL MASTERPLAN

BACKGROUND

The Arts and Cultural Master Plan was last updated by the Folsom City Council in March 2018. The plan contains 9 goals with a vision to have Folsom become a leading city in the Sacramento region, providing a broad selection of arts and cultural experiences in education and everyday life. Through these goals we foster and promote arts and cultural organizations, activities, programs, artists, and events that create opportunities that enrich the quality of life in Folsom.

DISCUSSION

Every commissioner has been provided a copy of the masterplan to begin reviewing and understanding the information contained in the plan. The masterplan contains 9 high level goals with 30 objectives to meet the goals. This masterplan is a guiding document that helps staff to deliver the services to the community and for the commission to identify opportunities for staff to explore.

RECOMMENDATION

This year staff is recommending that a workshop be conducted for the commission and that staff facilitate conversations so that the commission can continue to review and understand the masterplan and how it can be implemented to the services provided. During this workshop, the commission will focus solely on the masterplan by asking questions and suggesting focused areas that staff can then research.

Following the completion of the workshop, staff would then have information necessary to prioritize goals and objectives that can be set for the 2021-2022 year and will bring an action item back to the commission during the March meeting.

SUBJECT: PROPOSED CHANGE TO THE COMMISSION NAME

DISCUSSION

During the January 12, 2021 City Council meeting Vice Mayor Aquino inquired as to the reason the commission is named "Arts & Cultural" instead of "Arts & Culture". Council has questioned the use of the word "Cultural" instead of the word "Culture" in the name, as the tense of the two words "Arts and Culture" seemed more accurate. The City Council is interested in having an agenda item on a future council meeting that would amend the existing ordinance and FMC Chapter 4.07 to reflect the name of this commission as the Arts and Culture Commission. NO other aspects of the commission structure or duties would change.

I am bringing this to the attention of the commission and asking the commission to provide any input or comments so that I may pass this onto the Parks and Recreation Director and City Manager.

TO: Arts and Cultural Commission

FROM: Tom Hellmann, Recreation & Community Services Manager

SUBJECT: MANAGER'S REPORT

DISCUSSION

Below are some information items that I would like to share with the commission. Should you have any questions about any of the below items please let me know.

- Cindy Abraham is our Art Specialist who is responsible for the wonderful shows hosted at the Gallery @ 48. She is exceptional in her role and advocates for art services that we can provide or partners to provide. She serves in a critical staff roll to me and this commission in ensuring process, opportunities, and services.
- Due to the COVID-19 pandemic much of our recreation operation being offered is significantly less then what we normally provide. Currently our Senior and Art Center is closed to the public due to county restrictions and we continually monitor and await an opportunity to reopen and provide classes and services again. As indicated our next Gallery showing will be prepared to be launched virtually with dedicated retail hours to come and shop to purchase art. I will provide regular updates to the commission at meetings and through electronic communication as we begin offering critical services to our community again.
